

RoHS Compliance Declaration

Calibre UK Limited declares that all products manufactured on or after 22nd July 2019 will comply with the requirements of 2015/65/EU (ROHS2) either by reduction or hazardous substances or by exemption where applicable.

Please note not all Calibre products will become totally free of hazardous substances since some products contain items which are exempt, are destined for markets which are exempt, or are exempt due to their being brought to market prior to 1st July 2006.

Calibre will also comply with the requirements of 2002/96/EC (WEEE) for products it has manufactured as applicable.
